1. BACKGROUND

The European Border and Coast Guard Agency (Frontex) has been established under Regulation (EU) 2016/1624 of 14 September 2016. The agency was created on the foundations of the European Agency for the Management of Operational Cooperation at the External Borders of the Member States of the European Union (established under Council Regulation (EC) No 2007/2004), which has been coordinating operational activities at the EU external border since 2005.

Frontex is located in Warsaw, Poland and is in the process of significantly increasing the size of its staff from the current number of more than 720 to become the largest EU Agency.

The Agency's key tasks include:

- Operational and technical assistance to the EU member states at their external borders by coordinating joint border control operations including deployment of vessels, aircraft and other equipment and border and coast guards from EU countries;
- Coordination of border surveillance and law enforcement activities being part of maritime security in cooperation with national authorities and EU agencies such as Europol, EMSA and EFCA;
- Situation monitoring of EU's external borders and risk analysis of all aspects of border and coast guard management, including assessment of the EU Member States' border control authorities' ability to face migratory pressure and different challenges at their external borders;
- Assisting Member States in returning nationals of non-EU countries who do not have the right to remain on the territory of the EU;
- Development of training programmes for European border and coast guards;
- Monitoring new technological developments in the field of border control and acting as an interface between research institutions, industry and national border and coast guard authorities;
- Cooperation with EU and international organisations in the area of border and coast guard management, security, and prevention of cross-border crime (including terrorism);

- Assist non-EU countries in the context of technical and operational cooperation on border management including return of non-EU nationals, in the framework of the EU external relations policy.

For more information, please refer to our website: <http://www.frontex.europa.eu>.

2. TASK FORCE - PERMANENT PREMISES FOR THE FRONTEX HEADQUARTERS

The Task Force on the permanent premises for Frontex headquarters aims at planning, designing and constructing the Agency premises on the land area transferred to the Agency by the Polish authorities under the Headquarters agreement between Frontex and the Republic of Poland. In addition, the task force may also deal with other premises to be acquired or rented in the framework of the development of a standing corps.

Its main tasks are:

- scheduling and implementing the necessary sequential phases of the project;
- preparing, implementing and monitoring the project, ensuring maximum efficiency in resource allocation;
- ensuring that project deliverables are in line with the planned time, quality and budget;
- setting up complete, administrative, technical and financial control over the building project;
- developing a comprehensive building strategy with common standards, long-term planning and financial transparency;
- carrying out cost analysis, ensuring a close monitoring of costs, and developing strategies for cost control, contracting and risk management;
- preparing tenders, establishing and implementing contracts and agreements to be concluded by the Agency;
- developing security solutions and measures not limited to physical security; setting up business continuity;
- managing and supervising the human and financial resources allocated to the Task Force and the project;
- working in close cooperation with internal and external stakeholders, in particular, national authorities and European Commission services, to ensure smooth cooperation and coordination;
- identifying and implementing process improvements and quality measures within defined limits.

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES LINKED TO THE POST

Reporting to the Head of Task Force “Permanent premises for the Frontex headquarters”, the main duties related to this post are:

- Advising the Head of Task Force in the legal aspects and contractual arrangements related to real estate and building projects.
- Contribute to the identification, assessment and management of potential risks associated with certain tender modalities and contractual arrangements including compliance with sound financial management.
- Initiate the procurement processes and prepare the administrative procurement documents related to a building project i.e. from inception to acceptance by respecting the EU Financial Regulations.
- Assist in the review of the technical documentation and actively contribute in their drafting.
- Monitor the processing of the different tender procedures and delivering procurement assistance during the evaluation.
- Being actively involved during negotiations, identify and advise on possible agreements and assist in drafting conclusions.
- Prepare and finalize contractual documents, assist in monitoring the budget execution and support contract acceptance.
- Monitoring the overall procurement progress against the project schedule, report pro-actively in case of deviations and suggest mitigation measures.
- Coordinate and communicate with internal stakeholders to verify alignment of the procurement process with other internal projects and processes in collaboration with other team members of the Task Force.

- Draft notes, reports and presentations to communicate effectively and support final decisions efficiently.

4. QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE REQUIRED

4.1. Eligibility criteria (for external applicants²)

To be eligible, an applicant shall:

- Possess a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is four years or more (of full-time education);

For existing EU temporary staff 2(f) from other EU bodies interested in an inter-agency mobility and internal applicants, the classification in grade and step should be established in line with Article 55 of the CEOS.

The staff member's remuneration consists of a basic salary and allowances. The staff member may be entitled to various allowances, in particular to an expatriation (16 % of basic gross salary) or to a foreign residence allowance (4 % of basic gross salary) - depending on particular situation, and to family allowances (depending on personal situation) such as household allowance, dependent child allowance, pre-school allowance, education allowance.

The remuneration is expressed in EUR, after the compulsory deductions set out in the Staff Regulations or in any implementing regulations is weighted by the correction coefficient for Poland (currently 68.6). It can be paid either in EUR or in PLN according to a fixed exchange rate (currently 4.3631 PLN/EUR).

The remuneration of the staff members, the correction coefficient and the exchange rate are updated annually before the end of each year, with retroactive effect from 1 July, in accordance with Annex XI of the Staff Regulations.

Staff pays an EU tax at source and deductions are also made for medical insurance, pension and unemployment insurance. Salaries are exempt from national taxes. The rate of the solidarity levy is 6 %. The headquarters agreement with the Polish authorities is effective as of 1 November 2017. Under this agreement the Polish authorities will provide the following main benefits to Frontex expatriate staff:

- (a) a reimbursement of tuition cost of each dependent child (as from the age of 2.5 years) attending a school (up to and including secondary school) on Polish territory up to a limit of 35 000 PLN per school year;
- (b) limited 12 months' period of reimbursement of VAT on purchases of main household effects to assist a newcomer to settle in Warsaw;
- (c) a reimbursement of VAT on a purchase of a private car (this entitlement is renewable after 36 months).

Additionally, this agreement foresees that (an accredited) European School will be set-up in Warsaw in the future to allow dependent children of all Frontex staff (including Polish nationals) to attend a (tuition-free) European-type multilingual education.

Staff is entitled to annual leave of two working days per each complete calendar month of service. On top of that, staff is entitled to a number of additional days of leave depending on the grade, age and distance from the place of origin. In addition, there are on average 18 public holidays per year. Special leave is granted for certain circumstances such as marriage, birth or adoption of a child, etc.

Frontex being a knowledge based organization acknowledges the importance of training provided to its staff. Frontex provides general and technical nature training as well as professional development opportunities that are discussed annually during the staff performance appraisal.

Throughout the period of service staff is a member of the EU pension scheme. The pension is granted after completing a minimum of 10 years' service and after reaching the pensionable age of 66 years. The pensionable age for staff recruited before 1 January 2014 varies between 60 and 65 years. Pension rights acquired in one or more national schemes before starting to work at Frontex may be transferred into the EU pension system.

Staff is covered 24/7 and worldwide by the Joint Sickness Insurance Scheme (JSIS). Staff is insured against sickness, the risk of occupational disease and accident as well as entitled under certain conditions to a monthly unemployment allowance, the right to receive payment of invalidity allowance and travel insurance.

For further information on working conditions please refer to the Staff Regulations and the CEOS.

A contract of employment will be offered for a period of five years, with a probationary period of nine months. The contract may be renewed.

Frontex requires selected applicants to sensitive posts to undergo a security screening procedure and obtain a positive national opinion or respective personal security clearance. The level of the latter depends on the specific post. For this post, the required level of clearance is SECRET UE/EU SECRET. Applicants who currently hold a valid security clearance at the above-mentioned level (or higher) may not need to obtain a new one, pending confirmation from their respective National Security Authority. They shall provide Frontex with a security clearance certificate specifying the issuing authority, level and date of expiry. In case the validity of the security clearance expires within six months, a renewal procedure shall be initiated expeditiously. In case selected applicants do not currently hold a valid and positive security clearance at the above-mentioned level, Frontex will request such from the National Security Authority of the applicants' state of citizenship. In case of a failure to obtain the required security clearance certificate or if the National Security Agency issues a negative opinion at the above-mentioned level after the signature of the contract of employment Frontex has the right to terminate the contract of employment.

00-844 Warsaw
Poland

The complaint must be lodged within 3 months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure starts to run from the time the selection procedure for this post is declared as closed on the Frontex webpage (<http://www.frontex.europa.eu>).

Applicants also have a possibility to complain to the European Ombudsman. Please note that complaints made to the European Ombudsman have no effect on the time period laid down in Article 91 of the Staff Regulations.

⁵ In particular the provisions governing conditions of engagement in Title II, Chapter 3.

Note also, that under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, any complaint lodged with the Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to the institutions and bodies concerned.

11. APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Note: It is required to upload the digital application form saved in its original electronic dynamic PDF format (not scanned). Do not use any e-mail communication to submit your application (for exceptional circumstances see point 6 below) - such an application will be automatically disregarded and will not be recorded and further processed.

Frontex Application Form is to be downloaded (as a dynamic PDF form) from Frontex website under the link provided next to the Reference Number of the post/position. This digital application form is specifically created only for this selection procedure (and shall not be reused for another procedure).

The Frontex Application Form must:

- Be opened in a PDF reader in a MS Windows equipped computer - the recommended version of the PDF reader is Adobe Acrobat Reader DC (version 2017.009.20044. You may download a free version here: <https://get.adobe.com/uk/reader/>).
- Not be manipulated or altered. The form is digitally signed and protected against any manipulation or changes. Therefore, applicants shall not try to manipulate and/or alter it - in such a case the digital signature will disappear and the application form will become invalid for subsequent processing resulting in an automatic rejection of such submission.
- Be completed in English. Fields, where you may enter your input, are highlighted in light blue colour. Fields marked with an asterisk (*) indicate a required input. You should be concise, the space for your input is limited by the size of the text boxes.
- Be saved and named as follows: 'SURNAME_RCT-2019-00062'.
- Be submitted to Frontex - after saving - by uploading it to this URL link:
<https://microsite.frontex.europa.eu/en/recruitments/RCT-2019-00062>
- In case you have technical issues with filling/saving/uploading your electronic application form, you may write to us (in advance of the closing date for submission of applications) at jobs@frontex.europa.eu.

In case you submit more than one application for this procedure, Frontex will only assess the latest one and will automatically disregard all your previous applications.

If at any stage of the selection procedure it is established that any of the requested information provided by an applicant is false or misleading, the applicant in question will be disqualified.

Applicants shortlisted for an interview will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in the application. Do not, however, attach any supporting or supplementary documentation with your application until you have been asked to do so by Frontex.

Incomplete applications, applications uploaded after the deadline, sent by e-mail or applications using inappropriate or altered/manipulated application forms will be automatically disregarded by the system and will not be processed further.

Due to the large volume of applications, Frontex regrets that only applicants invited for the test and interview will be notified about the outcomes. The status of the recruitment procedure is to be found on Frontex website.

Due to high volume of selection procedures handled by Frontex, the period between the closing date for the submission of applications and the final shortlisting of applicants for an interview may take more than two months.

The closing date (and time) for the submission of applications is provided on the title page of the Vacancy Notice.

Please keep a copy of the automatically generated submission code that proves that you have submitted/uploaded your application to Frontex.

Applicants are strongly recommended not to wait until the last day to submit their applications.

Frontex cannot be held responsible for any last-minute malfunction due to an overload of the system or for other technical issues applicants may eventually encounter in the very last moment before the deadline.
